United Way: A message from Renee Rhem

Edit

As I write this, I'm looking over the numbers for our first week of the 2012 United Way campaign: More than $620,000 in donations and a 56-percent participation rate... what else can I say, but WOO-HOO! Thank you from the bottom of my heart! A lot of companies might say they have a culture of giving back to the community, but in the end, it's all about action. Once again, you're showing that IBC truly walks the talk when it comes to helping others.

But we're not done yet! With less than a week to go, I can't wait to see what more we can accomplish. If you haven't made your donation yet, I ask you to please consider doing so as soon as possible. I have seen the difference your contributions have made over the years. It's an important and effective way to make sure people who rely on charitable services receive them.

Like my co-chair Doug Chaet, this is my second year in helping to lead this effort for our company, and I truly appreciate the enriching experience I've received. It's been my pleasure to make a positive change in the lives of others, and it has been a thrill to see our associates so enthusiastic about pitching in and helping out. We could not have done it without your passion, and once again, I thank you.

I look forward to seeing many of you at this week's events. Giving is important, and there's no reason we can't have some fun while we're at it! Make sure you come out, say "Hi," have some refreshments, and help us remind everyone what we can accomplish when we Live United!
